73rd Year—101

COMMISSION READY TO ACT ON REZONING

NEW TIRES able to go where other tires fear to tread are given a test run on an incline at Wingfoot Lake Airship Base, Akron. O. The barrel-shaped tires can take trucks, trailers and other off-the-road vehicles over all types of terrain at speeds up to 65 miles an hour. Because of low pressure inflation (three to five pounds) the pneumatics "swallow up" rough, uneven surfaces by conforming with them.

New Photostat Machine In Use At Court House

The long-awaited photostat machine at the Pickaway County court house has been officially put into operation, the county commissioners revealed today.

Mrs. Walter Stout, former clerk of the county board of elections, has been employed to operate the machine. Commissioners set her salary at $225 a month.

The machine, installed at a total cost of less than $9,000, is located in the basement of the court house, in a small room west of the license bureau.

The unit is capable of photographically reproducing two pages per minute. It can make prints from 70 to 120 percent of the original size.

RECORDS FROM Probate Court and the Recorder's office will be the first to be photostated. Later on, other courthouse records may also be processed in a similar way, the commissioners said.

A 35mm camera photographs the page. The print is then "developed" in the machine and dried. In this manner, there is no need of copying documents.

Commissioners point out that this will result in a tremendous saving in money and time and assure an accurate reproduction.

Stormy Weather Due In Midwest

CHICAGO (AP) — More stormy wide areas of the mid-continent today in the wake of violent weather which brought tornado warnings to many states during the night.

Although no severe twisters were reported, the Weather Bureau said tornado winds lashed many Midwest areas. No injuries were reported.

Thunderstorms rumbled across the Central Plains and Great Lakes region. Heavy rain was reported in some sections. Sleet, freezing drizzle and freezing rain sliced highways in western Nebraska and headed into northwest Kansas. Hail pelted some areas.

Ship Sinking Claims To Total $315,000

CLEVELAND (AP) — Damage claims for 17 seamen who died and 13 who survived the sinking of the ore carrier Henry Steinbrenner in a Lake Superior storm May 11, 1953, will be settled by payment of $315,000.

The claimants agreed last night to division of the sum which will be paid by the Kinsman Transit Co. of Cleveland, owners of the 52-year-old vessel which went down in 600-foot-deep waters. It was charged that the ore carrier was not seaworthy.

U. S. District Judge Paul Jones had recommended the settlement to avoid a lengthy trial. He described it as "a fair amount."

British Ward Off Plots To Assassinate Red Chiefs

LONDON (AP) — A government source said today two anti-Communist underground groups had plotted to assassinate Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev during the visit of Soviet leaders to Britain.

"One of the organizations was reported to be centered on the Continent and the other in Britain," the source said.

Both Scotland Yard and the Foreign Office were tipped off, the source added. He said agents had identified the plotters as "emigres."

Scotland Yard declined comment. An official said: "We do not discuss security matters, for then they cease to be security."

A spokesman said the Foreign Office had no knowledge of a plot but added:

"The Russian security officers and our people took logical action against the large number of people hostile to the Soviet regime."

Butcher Hog Prices Show Improvement

COLUMBUS (AP) — Prices for butcher hogs at interior markets in central and western Ohio improved an average of 20 cents per hundred pounds this week, compared with last week's $15.10 average price, the state bureau of markets reported today.

Some prices increased in proportion with these averages and most sales were at $13 to $13.25 per hundred pounds.

Opening prices for Monday's market were $15.25-25 cents lower than Friday's close. Tuesday's prices increased to $15.50 and remained steady for Wednesday. Thursday's and Friday's prices ranged each received a 25 cent per hundred pounds cutback, which made Friday's general close $15 on average No. 2 butchers.

The bureau said the increase in live hog prices in the last few weeks has removed the need for further U. S. Department of Agriculture buying after the May deliveries are made. There will be no purchases made for June if the live hog prices remain as they are now, USDA reports said.

Attorney Argues Both Sides Of Case

LONDON (AP) — Harold Cassel, a London lawyer, went to court as prosecuting attorney, found the defendant had no lawyer, then volunteered to act for the defense as well.

Cassel, the prosecutor, accused Thomas Elliott of driving a motorcycle without a license. Cassel, the defense attorney, said Elliott merely was pushing the motorcycle and declared the prosecution argument calling it driving "is absurd."

The judge ruled Cassel, the defense attorney, was the more convincing and the case against Elliott was dismissed.

U. S., Soviet OK UNESCO Program

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Russia and the United States have thrown their support behind proposals for a U. N. study on harnessing atomic energy for industry and agriculture.

The agreement virtually assured the Economic and Social Council's approval of a resolution inaugurating the study.

Delegates Named

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Utah Republicans yesterday elected an unpledged delegation to the GOP National Convention Aug. 20. The 14 delegates are expected to favor President Eisenhower.

Soviet Tars To Tell Story To Senators

Sailors Refuse Take Stand Similar To 5 Of Their Comrades

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four Soviet seamen who spurned repatriation in a dramatic face-to-face encounter with the Soviet ambassador prepared to tell their story to Senate investigators today.

Three of them, Viktor Tatamikov, Ben Ermenko and Michael Ivankov-Nikolov, were called to testify at a public hearing of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

The subcommittee, which is looking into Soviet activities in the United States, already has heard from the fourth seaman, 20-year-old Viktor Soloyev.

The four met at an immigration hearing yesterday with Ambassador Georgi Zarubin. He pleaded in vain with them to return to Russia. Their stolid "nyets" left no doubt about their present determination to "stay here forever" as they put it in talking later with newsmen.

Immigration Commissioner Joseph Swing said that Zarubin had requested the seamen to return but had been turned down twice.

SWING ALSO said the seamen were advised that they should call immediately on the immigration service or their sponsor, the Church World Service, if anybody tried to bully them into leaving their U. S. sanctuary.

Swing thus served notice on the Russians that the immigration service, which is responsible under the law for such aliens in parole status, would not permit a repetition of what some have called the "kidnaping" April 7 of five other Russian seamen.

He already has sent special orders to the immigration service's 8,000 employees to be on the lookout for any harassment of other aliens in similar situations.

Swing's statement and the 1½-hour hearing yesterday were in sharp contrast to the 20-minute hearing held at a New York airport when the five others left, without explanation in company of Soviet officials.

After that incident, Swing said he felt the immigration service had done all it could.

The nine seamen, off the Russian tanker Tuapse, came to the United States in October. Eleven others of the crew still are on Formosa, where the tanker was impounded by Nationalist China in mid-1954. Twenty-nine other crewmen returned to Russia from Formosa.

The five seamen, after arrival in Russia, told Western reporters they returned of their own free will.

But their shipmates who remained in the United States disputed this.

The departure of the five seamen led to the expulsion of two members of the Soviet United Nations delegation.

Fast Time Nears For Northeast Ohio

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio dons its annual time belt Sunday, with Northeast Ohio going on fast time while the balance of the state stays on Eastern Standard Time.

Among the major communities switching to Eastern Daylight Saving Time are Akron, Alliance, Belaire, Bridgeport, Canton, Cleveland, Kent, Lorain, Massillon, Niles, Oberlin, Ravenna, Salem, St. Clairsville, Steubenville, Warren and Youngstown.

Most EDT cities will revert to EST Sept. 30, but Amherst, East Liverpool, Martins Ferry, Massillon, Steubenville, Toronto, Vermilion, Wadsworth and Wellsville will continue on EDT until Oct. 28.

Libby of the Atomic Energy Commission says the needs of the rest of the world for nuclear power are "even more desperate than ours."

World's Nuclear Needs Said High

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Willard F. Libby of the Atomic Energy Commission says the needs of the rest of the world for nuclear power are "even more desperate than ours."

He said last night "we must have" atomic power for peaceful uses.

Libby gave the eighth biennial science lecture of the City College Chemistry Alumni Assn. He also accepted the group's 1956 medal for scientific achievement.

Record High Road Building Program Gets OK In House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several Senate leaders predicted today congress will compose Senate-House differences and send a giant highway construction bill to President Eisenhower this session.

Ignoring a different highway bill passed by the Senate last year, the House passed 388-19 yesterday its own bill calling for $51 billion worth of new roads over the next 13 years and providing new taxes to help pay for them.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said "the Senate will go to work on this promptly and I am confident we will have a good road bill before Congress adjourns."

Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.), leading Republican spokesman on highways in the Senate, said "I think we are in pretty good shape on this now. It will take a little time, but we will work out a satisfactory bill."

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.), chairman of the Senate Public Works subcommittee on highways and author of the road construction measure passed by the Senate a year ago, had this prediction:

"I AM CONFIDENT we will be able to merge the two bills into a vigorous highway improvement program."

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said the Finance Committee which he heads will hold limited hearings on the tax features of the House bill. These include a one-cent increase, to three cents a gallon, in the federal gasoline tax, along with boosts in other taxes motorists must pay.

However, Byrd said the hearings will not cause any undue delay, adding "I am for a highway program, and I am sure we will get it enacted into law."

Gore's bill provided for a five-year, $18 billion federal-state road building program. It would have greatly increased U. S. allotments for all four federal aid programs — the interstate, primary secondary or rural, and urban systems.

The program in the House bill includes $37.6 billion in federal money with the rest coming from the states.

The great bulk of the total, or $27½ billion would be applied to completion of the 40,000 mile interstate system—the key highway network of the nation. The federal share would be 90 percent of this.

The House bill would levy an estimated $14.8 billion of new taxes over the next 16 years, on gasoline, diesel fuel, tires and rubber, and trucks, buses and trailers. There also is a special levy for heavy trucks.

Men Playing Bigger Role In Churches

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Getting out and talking up the church used to be mostly women's pursuit among lay Christians, but the men are now in there pitching.

This was the word today at the Methodist General Conference, where delegates from across the country are reviewing plans and progress of the denomination.

As to men's new religious zip, a report on lay activities said that twice as many of them as there were four years ago now are taking the front line in boosting the church in their communities.

Since 1952, 5,000 Methodist men's clubs—groups that whip up youth activities, make speeches to other organizations, and spread zeal for the church into their professions—have been formed.

This upsurge, in four years, doubled the number of such groups bringing the total to 10,000, with a working membership of about 450,000. Their objective:

To "seek daily Christ's way of life, to bear witness to this in business dealings and in social contacts, and to engage in some definite Christian service."

Bishop Richard C. Raines, of Indianapolis, had a special, non-clerical tribute for them: "Christianity depends not on clergy men but on 'the priesthood of the individual believer.'"

The student body threatened a mass walkout yesterday, but was deterred by Principal Edwin Blood. Instead, 700 of their number signed a petition asking that Colton's situation be given "extended consideration."

Colton, married and the father of a young daughter, has been in conspicuous in all the furor. He still is tending bar at a fashionable hotel cocktail lounge, and he still is teaching science.

He has said he offered to quit bartending if there were objections. This offer, he said, was made before he received the board's April 10 notice.

Colton, a native of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and graduate of Arizona State Teachers College at Flagstaff, has been tending bar for two of the three years he has taught here.

Associates said Colton tends bar to supplement his income as a teacher. He wasn't available for comment. Friends described him as "simply tired of it all."

Husband Appears To Have Tell-Tale Reason For Divorce

CLEVELAND (AP) — A process server handed some papers today to Mrs. Theresa Schultis, 34. She quickly grabbed them and tore them to bits.

Then, from a couple of the larger pieces, she discovered they were divorce papers filed by her husband, Edward, 33.

She jumped in her car and sped non-stop to Lakeside Court-house where she explained:

"I thought the papers were about my car. I've got to find out what my husband said about me."

An official located the petition and Mrs. Schultis read that she was accused of having a violent temper.

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Gen. Mark W. Clark, former supreme commander of United Nations forces in the Far East, says he still is opposed to integration of white and Negro troops "from the military point of view."

Clark, now president of the Citadel, South Carolina military college here, said he based his opinion on his experience in Italy during World War II when he commanded the 5th Army.

"The worst division I had was a Negro division," he said. Clark stated that the troops could not be relied on.

Army Bomb Experts To Check House

AKRON (AP) — An Army demolition squad today planned to investigate a house in Stow which is reported to be "mined" with dynamite or a time bomb.

The two-story, seven-room frame house was occupied for about 25 years by William M. Eberly, 78, who died April 16.

Earl Houk, Akron attorney who represented Eberly, said $4,500 in his client's name had been found in four banks in the Akron area.

A relative of Eberly said he had heard reports that a strong box in the basement of the house might contain $40,000 to $50,000.

Just prior to his death, Eberly told a friend that anyone trying to get into the house would be in for trouble because it was wired for an explosion, Houk said.

The attorney said he didn't put much credence in the "mine" report, but had asked the Army to investigate because he couldn't take a chance. He said a demolition squad from the 554th explosive ordnance disposal detachment at Ft. Hayes, Columbus, would make the investigation.

Maj. Richard W. Walkup, commanding officer of the detachment, said in Columbus he had received permission from Second Army Headquarters at Ft. Meade, Md., to investigate the house.

Eberly, who had worked for a number of rubber companies and was classed as a precision expert, lived alone for 10 years after the death of his wife.

'Fake' Telegram Mars Convention For Miami Youths

OXFORD (AP) — A mock Republican convention at Miami University finished its nominations yesterday after a splinter group walked out in protest over a "fake" telegram.

The convention, on its second ballot, selected Harold Stassen as vice-presidential running mate for President Eisenhower.

Before the vote, John H. White of Cincinnati led a walkout of about 200 delegates over the telegram issue.

Eisenhower was renominated Thursday after the telegram, believed to be from Alf M. Landon, was read to delegates, urging Landon supporters to endorse Eisenhower.

White told the convention that he learned the telegram was "fraudulent" and had not passed through the Western Union office.

Planning Body Aims To Meet Monday Night

Controversy Over Shopping Center Nearing Showdown

Circleville's Planning and Zoning Commission is expected to take a stand next Monday night on a proposal to rezone nearly 10 residential acres on the north side of Hargus Creek between Court and Pickaway streets.

The proposal, placed before city council by property owners and turned over to the commission for recommendation, is intended to clear the way for a shopping center. Commission Chairman Ludwig Haacker said late Friday that the planning body's decision will probably be announced Monday in order to turn the proposal back to council at its regular meeting the following night.

Wide spread controversy has been stirred by the current move. The commission has been conducting its own poll of property owners in the affected area, and the results of this balloting will likely weigh heavily in the recommendation to be given the lawmakers. Council, in turn, is expected to have the plan advertised for 30 days and then begin its own study.

Final decision on the rezoning plan will come from council.

HAACKER SAID ballots have already been returned by approximately 50 of nearly 80 property owners who were judged to be affected. He said the commission expects "to have nearly all of them" by the time the planning body meets Monday for its important action.

Members of the commission Chairman Ludwig Haacker of the City Planning and Zoning Commission said Saturday that he will "leave it up to the other members of the commission" as to whether any arguments on the rezoning issue will be permitted when the planning group meets Monday night. He said he personally is in favor of allowing brief discussion at the meeting "if it is necessary," but he plans to have the commission reach agreement on the matter prior to opening of the formal meeting.

Haacker said the meeting is planned for 8 p. m. in city council chambers on the second floor of the municipal building.

To make its special survey of the affected property owners, the commission mailed out a copy of the proposed zoning change in ordinance form, a ballot, questionnaire, and explanatory letter.

In the ballot section, property owners can vote either for the plan, against it—or to remain "neutral." If they take the "neutral" vote, they will be asked to confer in closed session prior to the meeting, but the meeting itself will be public as required by law. No formal action can be taken in the closed portion of the proceedings.

trial" course, their vote will be left to the discretion of the planning body, the ballot stipulates.

IN THE questionnaire section, the commission asked:

1. Do you live in this residence?
2. Do you rent this residence to others?
3. Do you own more than one piece of property in this area?
4. Do you have property in this area that does not have a dwelling constructed upon it?

The balloting property owner is also invited to make any additional remarks he or she may wish to add. Haecker has emphasized that such comments will be held strictly confidential by the commission.

Purpose of the questionnaire is seen in the letter of explanation, which makes it clear that the commission does not intend to make its decision solely upon the number of votes received for or against. Haecker has already warned:

"This can't be decided vote by vote, because the things to be considered vary in their value. This can't be just a voting contest."

THE COMMISSION'S letter, touching upon this point, reads:

"Attention is called to the fact that the Planning and Zoning Commission must consider various factors before it can make a recommendation to the council, and accordingly the results of the poll cannot be the sole basis for the final recommendation. However, it will be a means whereby the Planning and Zoning Commission may become informed as to the wishes of the property owners having property in the immediate vicinity of the area in question."

"The results of the poll, together with other pertinent factors, will be given proper consideration with regard to the final recommendation."

Return of the ballot-questionnaire form can be made up to midnight Monday, but it was evident that the commission feels it will be able to make its decision upon those returned up to the time of the meeting earlier that evening.

She Diets Herself Nearly Half Away

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Are you fat? Overweight? So, admittedly was Mrs. Bonita Kolbe, 28, of Malinta, Ohio. But she did something about it and did it better than anyone else in the country.

The pretty, dark-haired housewife weighed 285 pounds on Jan. 3, 1955.

Yesterday, a trim, 145-pound Mrs. Kolbe was declared winner of a national weight losing competition sponsored by TOPS, which stands for Take Off Pounds Sensibly. Hers was a record loss, TOPS officials said.

How did she do it? She stuck to a daily diet of 600 calories.

Corn Price Base Hiked On '56 Crop

Word has been received in the Pickaway County office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee that the base for minimum price supports for the 1956 corn crop has been raised.

The hike is to $1.50 a bushel in commercial area counties produced under acreage allotments, and $1.25 a bushel for corn not produced under allotment controls.

This makes all corn grown in commercial area counties eligible for price supports. The price support program for the 1956 corn crop will be carried out through Commodity Credit Corporation loans and purchase agreements, as in the past.

Rates by counties for loans and purchase agreements will be announced at a later date.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Arbor Day was observed Friday with the planting of 6,000 trees in six hours in a public demonstration of a mechanical tree planter on a 15-acre tract of Cleveland Park.

FACING IMMINENT DEATH from a serious heart condition, 71-year-old Franz Degenhardt has been reunited with Alfons, 26, one of his two living sons, in the Black Forest village of Oberkirch, Germany. The American Red Cross helped get emergency leave orders for Alfons, a private in the U. S. Army stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga., and he flew to Germany. Nudged further by the Red Cross, the Army reassigned Alfons to Karlsruhe, only 40 miles from his father, who lost four sons in World War II. (International)

6 Persons Hurt In 2 Crashes At Same Intersection, 104-762

Two accidents at the same intersection, approximately two hours apart, resulted in injuries to at least six persons Friday. Both occurred at routes 104 and 762 in Scioto Township.

Five persons were hurt in the first accident when a car driven by Ruth M. Knece, 49, of 406 E. Ohio St., reportedly came out of Route 762 and cut in front of a car on Route 104. She has been cited by Deputy Sheriff Carl White for failure to yield the right of way.

Mrs. Knece suffered a deep head cut, as did Grover Cromley, 68, a passenger. Another rider, Albert Knece, 76, received broken ribs.

Merle V. Holcomb, 45-year-old president and general manager of a Chillicothe plumbing and heating firm, was the driver of the second car. He apparently was not hurt, but two of his passengers, Marcella Holcomb and Ruth Miller, received bruises.

LITTLE MORE than two hours later, a two-car collision took place at the same intersection, with only one minor injury reported.

Letter To The Editor

The Circleville Herald encourages letters to the editor on pertinent subjects of local interest. However, unsigned letters will be disregarded. No duplicate will be used if requested.

EDITOR, THE HERALD:

If you have stood on the corner of Court and Main lately you will notice, next to the weather, the hottest issue in town is the proposed shopping center.

Why some of our illustrious citizens are fighting such a progressive move I can hardly understand. Recently I talked to an official executive of Big Bear markets and he was amazed that anyone would not accept a shopping center in a town of this size. "Disgusting and One Horse" were his exact words.

The city was very anxious to annex us Northend residents, but have they provided us a waterway or a sewer or even decent roads? Thus far all we've got is promises and higher taxes.

I dare some of our city fathers to drive their cars over Mulberry Road.

I believe the reasons thus far given for not wanting a shopping center are trivial and one-sided.

Let's not overlook the views of the people who live in the country. They are really the ones who bring business to this community.

2 More Bodies Found In Debris

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—Two more bodies were pulled yesterday from the charred ruins of the fire-damaged Carver Hotel.

Coroner Edward Lowrey said one body was identified as that of M. D. Pinney, 61, Jefferson, Ohio. The other is believed to be that of R. J. Schmitz, Columbus, Ohio, the coroner said.

Police said discovery of the fourth body ended the search of the debris. Two bodies were found last Wednesday. Four hotel guests had been reported missing.

Managing Editor Named At Lima

LIMA (AP)—M. J. Dean, executive editor of the Lima News since April 2, Friday has appointed managing editor.

Dean came to the Lima News from the Pama (Tex.) News, a member of the Freedom Newspaper group of which the Lima News recently became a part.

Dean succeeds Robert S. Rochester who has resigned, effective Saturday, to become editor of the Washington C. H. Record-Herald.

HARRY H. WALLACE

Funeral services will be held in Columbus Monday for Harry H. Wallace, 53, who died Thursday at his home in that city.

He was a brother of Ed Wallace, Pickaway County state representative, and Mrs. Arthur Frazier of Williamsport.

Mr. Wallace had been employed at the Jackson-Guldan Violin Company in Columbus for the past 30 years. Survivors include:

His wife, Kathryn; three daughters, Linda Ann at home and Mrs. Charles Wehrle and Mrs. Leonard Yoll, both of Columbus, the one brother, three sisters and three grandchildren.

Requiem High Mass will be sung at 10 a. m. Monday in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Columbus. Friends may call at the home of the deceased, 111 E. Sycamore St., where the Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

Burial will be in St. Joseph Cemetery by the Mader-Quint Funeral Home.

EUGENE W. NEWTON

Funeral services will be held Monday in Ashville for Eugene W. Newton, 72, a former resident of that community.

Mr. Newton, who moved to Columbus from this district, lived in that city at 2320 Canterbury Rd. He died Friday afternoon at the home of a daughter.

Mr. Newton was born July 28, 1883, in Pickaway County. Survivors include:

His wife, Mertie; two daughters, Mrs. Meta Jones and Mrs. Mary Wilson, both of Columbus, and a sister, Mrs. Etha May of Circleville.

The deceased was a member of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Columbus.

Services Monday at 2 p. m. will be held in the Bastian Funeral Home, Ashville. The Rev. Joseph O'Morrow will officiate. Burial will be in Reber Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Saturday from 7 to 9 p. m. and on Sunday from 2 to 4 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

Cincy Teacher Robbed In Church

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Walnut Hills High School teacher was beaten and robbed as she knelt praying in a church.

Police said Miss Janet Kemme, 30, told them she stopped at the Church of the Assumption on her way from school.

Investigators quoted her saying she was struck from behind as she knelt in a rear pew.

Miss Kemme's purse was found at the rear of the church with $2.87 missing, police said.

Plane Bomber's Confession OKd

Denver Jury To Hear Statement By Graham

DENVER (AP)—A signed confession which the FBI got from John Gilbert Graham will go before a jury trying him on a murder charge in the dynamite bombing of an airliner that killed his mother and 43 others.

"The court is fully convinced the statement was voluntary," Dist. Judge Joseph M. McDonald ruled yesterday after hearing Graham claim the confession was not true.

Graham testified in the absence of the jury that he signed the statement because he feared the FBI would arrest his wife, Gloria, 22, because of a discrepancy in statements she and Graham had made to the FBI. The discrepancy concerned Graham's actions the evening of Nov. 1 when a United Air Lines plane exploded near Longmont, Colo.

Dist. Atty. Bert Keating asked Graham:

"You mean to tell this court you assumed responsibility for 44 deaths because something was said about your wife going to jail?"

"Yes, sir," Graham answered.

THE JURY OF seven men and five women was taken from the courtroom during the four-hour testimony concerning the "voluntariness" of the confession.

Much of the same testimony will be presented today to the jury before the confession is read. The contents were not disclosed.

Judge McDonald's ruling approving introduction of the confession assures consideration of the death penalty among the verdicts in the case.

Graham, father of two, is charged in the death of his mother, Mrs. Daisie E. King, 55. He is accused of hiding a 25-stick dynamite bomb in her suitcase before it was placed aboard the airliner that exploded 11 minutes after taking off from Denver. The FBI said Graham took out a $37,500 air trip policy on her life, payable to him.

Savings Bonds March Total Hits $62,904

Sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds for Pickaway County in March totaled $62,904, according to a report by Judge William D. Radcliff, county chairman.

State-wide sales during the month amounted to $30½ million. This represented a decrease of $250,000 over the same month a year ago.

In the nation, sales were 10 percent lower than 1955, but the total amount outstanding has now reached a record high of $46.6 billion.

In reporting these sales, Judge Radcliff pointed out that while 29 counties had achieved their first quarter sales quotas, none of the eight metropolitan counties had reached their expected sales goals. Sales of the popular Series E Bond are expected to increase as many Ohio companies are now conducting person-to-person payroll savings plan campaigns.

Leading the state were Champlain, Vinton, Holmes, Medina and Ottawa counties. The county chairman emphasized that holders of maturing Series E Bonds may hold them for an additional 10 years during which time they will continue to yield 3 percent interest compounded semi-annually.

Highway Fund Setup Studied

CLEVELAND (AP)—Democratic candidate Michael V. DiSalle, seeking his party's nomination for governor, last night proposed that local governments be relieved of the obligation to contribute matching funds for highways under the new federal roads measure.

Under that measure, passed yesterday by the U. S. House, Ohio would get $120 million a year for the next 13 years, he said. It is anticipated, DiSalle added, that the state will ask local governments to participate in Ohio's 10 per cent matching requirement, which would amount to $12 million annually.

The state, DiSalle said, should furnish the entire matching funds.

St. Philip's Plans 3-Day Celebration For Patronal Saint

A three-day celebration of St. Philip's Day, next Tuesday, begins Sunday at St. Philip's Church in honor of the patronal saint of the local parish. All Episcopalians in Pickaway County will join in remembering the history of the local parish, as well as in the renewal of their loyalties to the church's work in this area.

The celebration will begin in the church at the 8 a. m. celebration of the Holy Eucharist when the men and boys of the parish receive the Blessed Sacrament as a group. They will meet afterwards in the parish house for breakfast and to hear an address by Mr. John Sherwood, executive layman for the Diocese of Southern Ohio.

Arrangements for the breakfast and the presentation of Mr. Sherwood will be made by Mr. Lawrence Goeller Jr., key-layman for the parish.

Mr. Sherwood, a former business of Logan, has been added to the Diocesan staff to serve as executive layman in the Diocesan efforts to promote increased activity amongst the laymen. Having served for many years as lay reader in his parish at Logan and as Vestryman plus various other capacities, he is expected to be of great help to the laymen in the parish here.

During the 9 a. m. family service Sunday, the Rev. Jack Bennett will lead the church school members and their families in a rehearsal of the second office of instruction during which they are reminded of the nature of the church, the administration of the Sacrament and the work of the ministry. Classes will be held for all ages following the service, during which emphasis will be placed on the history of the local parish and the church school's part in that work.

At 10:30 a. m., there will be a festival service, with music by the combined senior and junior parish choirs. Following the order of daily morning prayer, the Rector will present his St. Philip's Day address, in which he will recall the beginnings and growth of the parish as well as site the goals for the future.

The first articles of organization drawn in 1817 and signed by 22 persons will form the basis for the Rector's address on this occasion. It is as follows:

"Be it remembered that on the 26th day of May A. D. 1817 the Rev. Philander Chase, late Rector of the Church, Hartford, state of Connecticut, preached and performed divine service in the town of Circleville, according to the Liturgy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. After which, he explained his reason in coming to the state of Ohio, and the success which had attended his labors in collecting and organizing Churches to the Glory of God, and the good of men's souls. Whereupon the following instrument of Parochial Association was drawn up for signature": viz:

"We, whose names are underwritten, deeply inspired with the truth and importance of the Christian religion and anxiously desirous to promote its influences in the hearts and lives of ourselves, our families and our neighbors, do hereby associate ourselves together by the name, style and title of St. Philip's Church, county of Pickaway and state of Ohio, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the United States of America, whose liturgy, constitution and canons we do hereby adopt."

"In this early document, we have stated the purpose and reason for being of our parish church," the Rector will remind his hearers Sunday morning.

The high point of the parochial observance of St. Philip's Day will be reached on the eve of the St. Philip's Day, when members of the parish family will meet at the parish house Monday at 6:30 p. m. for an all-parish family covered dish dinner. A program will follow. During the program, those present will be given a well rounded presentation of "The Church

Church Of Christ Lists Sermon Topic

"In Trust With The Gospel" is to be the sermon topic for the Church of Christ Sunday morning. In commenting on Sunday's lesson, Charles Cochran says:

"A great and fearful responsibility is placed upon the church of the Lord to 'Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature' (Mk. 16:15-16). The great apostle Paul said, 'For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel' (1 Cor. 9:16).

"Why is it so important that the gospel be preached? Many undoubtedly wonder as to the answer to this question. Paul answers it in Rom. 1:16 when he says, 'For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.' The following reasons are apparent from the scriptures:

"(1) Man has to do something in order to be saved from the guilt of his sins, therefore, he must know what to do. He is enlightened by preaching (John 8:32, Mt. 7:21-23; Heb. 5:8-9).

"(2) Man must believe in order to be saved (Heb. 11:6), faith comes by hearing God's word (Rom. 10:17).

"(3) Man must repent and be baptized (Acts 2:38). Preaching informs him of his duty.

"(4) Man must worship God in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). Preaching of the true gospel informs him how this may be done."

Lutherans To End Series Of Sermons

At the 8:30 and 10:45 a. m. services Sunday in Trinity Lutheran Church, Pastor Carl G. Zehner will present the sermon, "The Vine", taken from John 15:1-8. This concludes the series of sermons based on symbols of Christ as found in the Gospel of St. John.

At the 8:30 a. m. service, the youth choir will lead the congregation in the ministry of song by the singing of the hymns, "The Spirit's Fruits Are Peace and Love" and "Holy, Holy, Holy". At the late service, the adult choir will lead the above hymns. Special music has been prepared by both choirs.

Sunday school will follow the early service at 9:30 a. m.

City Presbyterians Set To Celebrate 100th Anniversary

In Philadelphia in 1706, the first Presbytery was established, with possibly only a score of churches forming the Presbytery.

One hundred and fifty years later, the Presbyterian Church in Circleville outgrew its former edifice and built a new one. Sunday, the present congregation celebrates its 100th year of the Lord's work in Circleville since that time.

During the worship, the pastor will quote from some of the sermons preached by former pastors, and cite many instances from the history of the church during the past century. The choir will sing the anthem that was sung at the dedication of the present church edifice on Jan. 20, 1901.

Mrs. Theodore L. Huston, organist, has chosen numbers played by Mr. Edward Wittich, who was organist at that time. Also, "Evening Song", played by Mr. Edwin Arthur Kraft at the dedication of the Memorial Organ on Jan. 2, 1930, and "March from Meistersinger", by Wagner, played by Miss Abbe Mills Clark in 1945, will be heard.

After the worship, a coffee hour will be held in the Social Rooms, where a display of historic items is assembled.

This marks the close of a month of celebration of the 250th anniversary of "Old Buttonwood" in Philadelphia, Pa., the "mother church" of Presbyterianism in America since 1706. It also marks a century of the life of this Presbyterian Church in its service to

'Christ Is Truth' Sermon Subject For Methodists

"Christ is the Truth" has been announced as the sermon subject of the Rev. Charles D. Reed, minister of First Methodist Church, for Sunday morning in the duplicate services at 8:15 and 10:45. The Scripture lesson will be read from The Gospel, according to St. John, the community of Circleville and Pickaway County since 1855.

the sixteenth chapter, the first thirteen verses.

The junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ervin Leist, will sing "Stories of Jesus", by Challenor, in the early service. The adult choir, under the direction of Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh, will sing "The Lord Is Exalted", by West, in the 10:45 a. m. service.

Hymns for the services will include: "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling", by Charles Wesley, and "Walk In The Light", by Bernard Barton.

Mrs. Ervin Leist will be at the organ in both services.

SANCTUARY

The sun makes golden patterns across the tiled floor, and there seems something ageless and of wondrous beauty in the vaulted arches of solid stone. Here there is sanctuary, freedom, at least temporarily, from the worries of the outer world.

In every great life, there have been times of reflection and meditation. There have been moments of solitude to renew a flagging spirit with the infinite power of God, to find an inner peace which comes from another world.

In every life, there are times when sanctuary is needed. There are moments when the quiet witness of the Holy House is more eloquent than all the words in the world.

Often a step into the shadowed quiet of a church brings a resurgence of faith and courage that sets life on a new and greater course. This is the miracle of sanctuary—a miracle that can happen TO YOU!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

You Need A Church To Be A Christian

Did you ever stop to think that Christianity is not a "lone wolf" activity?

Too many of us have come to think of our Christian profession as something having to do entirely with morals. We very glibly recite "The Golden Rule" and seem to believe that if "we do unto others as we would have them do unto us," we are being good Christians.

But, being a Christian first involves believing in Christ as our personal Saviour and as the Saviour of the world. It involves much more than being a good person.

Christ taught, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul and with all thy mind..."

This command to love God includes worship, prayer, work for God's Kingdom. As our Book of Common Prayer puts it, a Christian's duty is "to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in His church, and to work and pray and give for the spread of His Kingdom."

In the Episcopal Church we worship God corporately—with other people. It means being a part of "the Body of Christ"—an active participant in His church.

We invite you to join us in worshipping God and His Son, Our Lord, in the Episcopal Church near you, at your earliest convenience.

Here's good reading. Send for your copy of the booklet "Why Go to Church?" You'll find it very much worthwhile.

WITH A PERSONAL TOUCH
The National Council of Churches recently sponsored a Pittsburgh conference of 400 leaders of industry, labor and agriculture on the "problem" of American abundance.

The conference concluded that "Christians should support substantial participation by the United States on a large-range program of cooperation with other nations in the development of the less economically developed countries of the world."

As a generality, this may be fine. But giving such support is rather nebulous. The American with a conscience may want something more within the realm of personal possibility.

Fortunately, there are avenues for this approach, too.

To those troubled by the plight of more than 900,000 Palestinian Arab refugees uprooted from their homes in Israel, gifts to the American Middle East Relief (350 Fifth Avenue, New York) provide a personal answer.

The conscience is pricked by the thought of thousands of war orphans in various parts of the globe. Few can afford the spectacular method of adopting these youngsters. But the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children (43 West 61st, New York) can use donations that help support these unfortunate.

The CARE program of gift packages is well known. Not so publicized is that pious, midwifery kits, and books can be sent through CARE (20 Broad Street, New York). For example, an "American bookshelf" of 99 outstanding books of history, biography, fiction, and science can be sent abroad to any person or group for only $30.

These are but a few of the opportunities for Americans who want to do something personal about the pressing problems of the world.

BIG BUTTER GIVEAWAY
IN GETTING RID of a surplus, the government relies overwhelmingly on giveaway and not on commercial sales. That is true at least in the case of butter.

The government buys butter, cheese and dry milk from processors to support dairy prices of butterfat and milk. At its peak storage the government held 900 million pounds of butter. It is announced that this tremendous hoard has now been unloaded or committed. Uncle Sam's butter shelves are bare, or will be as soon as stocks move out under present plans.

About 40 percent of the 900 million pounds of butter went to welfare agencies abroad. Nearly as much was given away in the United States to school lunches, charitable institutions and needy persons. A small percentage was sold abroad but paid for in foreign currencies which were used in the U. S. foreign aid program. Only 3 percent was sold commercially in the United States at a price that paid the way.

While all of the stored butter is being moved, it is expected that other butter surpluses will go to the government unless processors have the courage now to build up their own inventories. If they do not, Uncle Sam once more will have to buy the butter and then give it away.

BACK TO THE FARM
FARMERS have long indulged in wry jokes about city cousins who invited themselves out for a free "holiday on the farm." But some farmers in the East have found a way to convert the joke into a paying proposition. They take paying guests for "back to the farm" holidays, charging from $34 to $40 a week.

In fact, farmers in 28 states have banded together to publish a booklet listing such farms. Some may be "dude farms" patterned on the guest ranches of that type. This news brings out in full perspective the qualities of a visit to the farm. The relaxed atmosphere. The sight of a calf drinking from a bucket. Feeding livestock. A farmer plowing a straight furrow on a cloudless Spring day.

But, come to think of it, if the number of family-size farms keeps dwindling the way economists say they will, many farmers may have to pay to spend time at an honest-to-goodness farm.

Then they will realize how lightly they regarded a blessing they scarcely realized they had.

George E. Sokolsky's
These Days
A friend came in to chit-chat and he talked about his children and their schools and his rising school taxes. He lives in a suburb and owns his own house. I live in the city and pay rent. Therefore I am not conscious of the school tax. Whatever the schools cost is included in my rent. When the rent goes up, I say that the landlord is gouging me.

My friend pays his school tax directly and is very much concerned about it. As a matter of fact, he pays the tax but does not send his children to the public school. His children go to private schools. So he pays twice. I pay three times; but am never conscious of it. I pay a school tax in Massachusetts; I pay rent in New York which includes the tax, and I have sent my children to schools of my choice.

When we speak of a free school system, we really mean a school system supported by taxes. There is nothing free about it nor could it be free, for somebody has to pay for everything. For my parents, in their immigrant simplicity, the school system was free in another sense; namely, that parents were free to send their children to school.

They came from a country in which secular education for their kind of people was forbidden. And rents were then low and the dollar was worth a great deal and the world was good to live in.

Also the teaching in the school was very good because there was no monkey business. Children were taught to respect their parents and that cleanliness was next to godliness and that an honest man earns a living and if you misbehaved, you got whacked good and hard — so generally a child behaved unless he expected to be a pickpocket or a gangster.

These days, the teachers are afraid of their pupils who often regard themselves as either quiz kids or blackboard jokers. So the parents in my city try to get their children into private schools or parochial schools which they think are better and some of them really are better. But those parents who believe that they are saving their children from the shame and horror of the Left Wing by sending them to fancy schools are likely to be fooled because intellectual fashions, like women's styles, are all-pervasive and what is found in the public schools will be found in the private schools, except the accent is different.

I know of a girl's private school where current events and American history have often been taught by an imported foreigner, and I know of a boy's school where a teacher of religion debunked the Bible because he taught by the shock method, by which he hoped to open the boys' minds to ideas and differences of opinion. All they got from him was that the Bible was full of lies.

Now, in New York, and I suppose in other cities, we are off on a spending spree to build new schools and to recondition some that are called old but really are only badly maintained.

Last year, I visited Eton which was founded in 1440 and Stowe which was built in about 1660 and I must say that we have no school buildings quite as old as those in New York and the education the boys get in England is no worse in old buildings than ours in new buildings.

It is not the age of a building that matters as much as the inspiration of the teacher, and there must be inspiring teachers today as there were when I was a small boy, except that mine did not regard themselves as underpaid. Also, we got whacked for damaging school property and were generally afraid to do it and did not, and the water closets were used for what they were made for and not to push heroin and marijuana about which we did not know because no one told us.

So, it would seem to me that the real problem of the schools is not buildings but teachers and that if the children came home speaking English instead of rock-rol and with some regard for respect and propriety, parents would not be so antagonistic to school taxes, which, in an inflationary period, are bound to go up.

BYPASSING SUMMER

ALTHOUGH Spring has not passed the halfway mark—by the calendar, that is — news items in the daily press frequently seem to bypass Summer and project the populace smack dab into Fall.

Not only political news items which have to do with the presidential election, but economic tid bits of information. Such as "shoes will cost more next Fall," "automobiles will cost more when new models come out if steel prices are jacked up again," etc.

But a "Summer" item appears in a Montana newspaper. All roads into Yellowstone Park will be cleared of snow and open to traffic by June 10, it is hoped.

DIET AND HEALTH
Don't Be Taken In By "Cancer Cures"

By HERMAN M. BUNDESEN, M.D.
LET'S get a few things straight about the dangers of cancer. Only a doctor can determine whether or not you have this dread disease. And if you have, only a doctor can treat you.

Don't be misled by advertisements of "cancer cures." So-called doctors who advertise they can cure cancer with medicines, salves, injections or with secret machines, should be avoided.

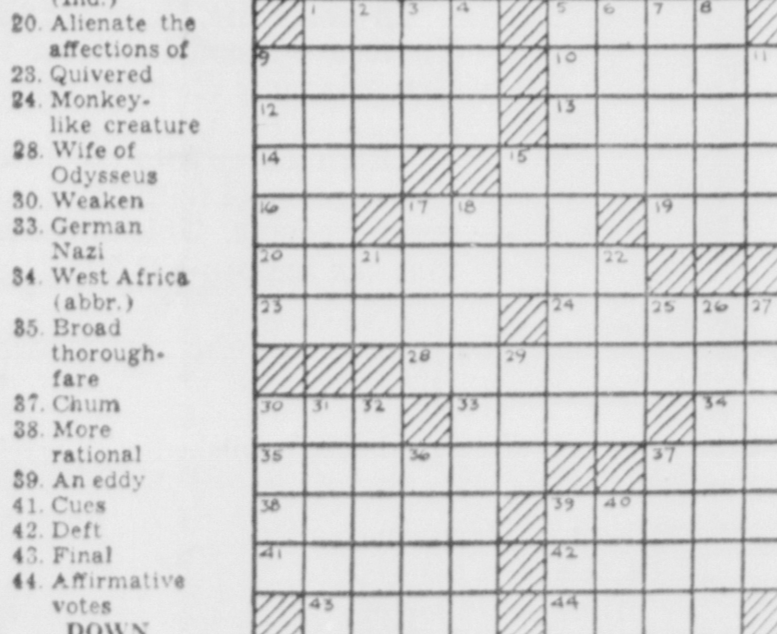

Innocent Victims
Remember, testimonials displayed by some of these persons can be purchased. Or innocent victims can be hoodwinked into signing them.

There's a great danger in wasting time on some of these "cures." Maybe these treatments actually will do you no harm in themselves, but they will delay you from seeking competent medical help. As I have told you so many times, early detection and treatment of cancer is the best way to save lives.

Medical Science
Medical science, as you well know, advances very carefully. Reputable doctors and scientists make no definite promises until all facts have been checked and countless tests made.

The blunt fact is that we don't know a great deal about cancer at the present time. We are constantly learning more, but we've still got a long way to go. That's why your physician, if he's honest — and most doctors are — will not predict the out-

SYNOPSIS
Mrs. May Featherstone, wealthy English dowager, recognizes a passenger and senses trouble as she boards the "S.S. Caribbean" bound from England to Jamaica. Valerie Allison, a pretty, rechartered nurse, and Dirk Hanson, who was engaged to Mrs. Featherstone's daughter, Eileen, at the time of her death in an auto accident, accompany her. Val is earning her passage by caring for Mrs. Featherstone, an invalid by imaginary illness. Dirk is overtly attentive to Mrs. Featherstone, hoping to be considered in her will. Eileen's earlier romance had been broken up by her mother, and her lover later becomes a doctor. Mrs. Featherstone becomes ill, but refuses to see the ship's surgeon. Val meets the man that Mrs. Featherstone had noticed among the passengers—Bruce Harridan—and he is now in the uniform of the ship's surgeon. Val learns that they will both be working at the same new hospital near Montego Bay after the voyage. She also learns that Dr. Harridan was Eileen's lover, and that he had threatened to kill Mrs. Featherstone at the time she wrecked their romance. Val worries about the outcome of a possible shipboard meeting between Dirk and Dr. Harridan, who is still very bitter about the past. Mrs. Featherstone refuses to leave her cabin, and Dirk and Val line together. They become good friends.
CHAPTER 8
DURING the next two or three days the weather got steadily worse. They were caught up in the tail end of a gale, and giant waves tossed the small cruise ship about as though it were a piece of flotsam. Practically all the passengers were seasick, including, Val heard, a number of the crew. Mrs. Featherstone tossed and groaned and kept wishing she were back on dry land under the care of her beloved Dr. Mangin.
"The ship's doctor might be able to give you something that would make you feel better," Val said hopefully.
"No, no!" Mrs. Featherstone clutched at her arm. "How do I know he wouldn't put poison in the pills he gave me?"
"Oh, please," Mrs. Featherstone, don't be so silly," Val tried to speak soothingly. "Quite apart from the fact that I'm sure it's the last thing he'd do, he wouldn't dare."
"But who would know he'd put poison in the pills?" her patient insisted hoarsely. "And since he's the only one on board who can sign the death certificate, naturally he wouldn't order a post-mortem."
"No, no!" Mrs. Featherstone clutched at her arm. "How do I know he wouldn't put poison in the pills he gave me?"

Local Home Demonstration Holds Achievement Event

Busy Bees Group
Hosts Homemakers

"Looking Back To See Ahead", was the theme for the Annual Achievement Program of Pickaway County Home Demonstration held on the "eve" of National Home Demonstration Week in Trinity Lutheran parish hall.

During the morning homemakers cooperated in observing and discussing project work of the activity year just ending.

The Roundtown Busy Bees Club, with Mrs. Noble Barr as chairman, served as the hostess committee for the buffet luncheon, "Exhibit", which was that highlight of the noon hour.

As a prelude to the program, directed by Mrs. Dick Tootle, several economical and easy ways of constructing rugs from scrap was demonstrated by Mrs. Lydia Neff and Mrs. Homer Peters.

Mrs. Frank Graves was piano accompanist for group singing and devotions, given by Mrs. J. B. Stevenson, were the 31st Chapter of Proverbs, used to point out the many virtues of a homemaker.

Past and present club and county councillors and officers were introduced followed by greetings and reminders from the county president, Mrs. Don Roush Jr., who was lately re-elected.

The fashion parade of cotton dresses made in three special interest project groups was narrated by Mrs. Frank Graves, Mrs. Frank Baum, and Mrs. Roush.

This revealed several mother-daughter projects as well as first dress making experiences.

The international exhibit was used as a timely background for Mrs. William Defenbaugh's illustrated talk, "Yesterday's Friends are Today's Family."

Mrs. Defenbaugh elaborated on experiences and observations in her trip around the world, placing emphasis on ways and means which would be of most interest to the homemaker.

In conclusion Mrs. Leora Sayre, county agent for home economics in extension service, listed pertinent facts and figures of activities just finished and those planned for the future.

The traditional friendship offering will be sent to the Ceylon Fund in preparation for the Associated Country Women of The World Meeting.

Den 2 Presents 'Bird Charades' At Pack 205 Meet

Den 2 presented bird charades at the April meeting of Cub Scout Pack 205, held in the Presbyterian Church.

Den mothers of Den 2 are Mrs. Raymond Arledge and Mrs. Henry Helwagen.

Each cub, in keeping with the theme "Bird Watchers", recited a verse and asked a member of the audience to identify the bird he represented.

They were as follows: Ronnie Seward, cardinal; Ralph Arledge, bluebird; Douglas Dunkle, red winged blackbird; Bruce Helwagen, robin; John Hatcher, red-headed woodpecker; Dick Patrick, crow; and Brad Schneider, song sparrow.

Cubmaster Joe Bell displayed the second place ribbon awarded the Pack for their participation in the Scout-O-Rama. The theme was "Under the Sea".

A Certificate of Advancement was shown the group. This indicated that over 80 percent of the boys had advanced one rank this year.

Mr. Doyle Painter presented a display award to the Pack for their decorated window in recognition of Scout Week. Mr. Painter also announced that the Scout Roundtable and Recognition dinner would be held May 3 in the Presbyterian Church. He stated that Cubs and parents would be welcome to the Campfire to be held May 5 during the Scout Camporee.

Two new members, William Brock and Richard Samuel, of the Pack were awarded Bobcat pins. Gold Arrows for the Bear Badge were awarded to: George Grigg, Roy Eshelman, Stephen Spicer, Larry Betts, Garry Betts, Stephen Bowers, Tommy Hickey and Stephen Weiler.

Gold Arrows for the Wolf Badge: Doyle Painter, Ronnie Seward, Terry Lambert, Chris Wilkins and Jay Barnhill.

Silver Arrows: George Grigg and David Thomas; Bear Badge: Gregory Trecker and John Hatcher; One year pin, Bruce Bell and Den chief Cord, Explorer Scout Charles Hedges.

The attendance award went to Den 2 for the second consecutive time. About 60 Cubs and parents were present.

Mr. Richard Wilson and Mr. Edward Grigg presented two nature films, "The Three Bruins" and "Animal Homes".

In conclusion Mr. Painter led the singing of Taps, and Mr. Bell pronounced the Scout Masters Benediction.

The next Pack meeting is to be a stunt night Wednesday, May 23.

Stork Shower Held For Arthur Dicks

The second meeting of the Cook, Sew and Chatter 4-H Club was held in the county extension office.

Paula Kay Francis, president, opened the business session by leading the group in the 4-H pledge.

Officers elected at the first meeting were: president, Paula Kay Francis; vice-president, Linda Easterday; secretary, Barbara Culp; news reporter, Carol Moore; recreation, Paula Denham; health, Jeanne Bartholomew and safety, Janet Griest.

Other events of the first meeting were: Barbara Culp, chosen junior contestant for the club, also junior leader and each member choosing her project.

Janet Griest will give a safety demonstration at the next meeting, to be held in the county extension office.

The Westfall Livestock 4-H Club held its regular meeting in Wayne Township School.

The meeting was called to order with the club pledge and the pledge of allegiance.

Thirty-six members answered roll call by naming his project. The group decided to attend the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Yellowbud for Rural Life Sunday, May 6.

The next meeting will be held May 8 in the schoolhouse.

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to everyone who assisted us during the illness and after the death of our beloved father, the late Cassius Radcliff. We are especially grateful to the Rev. O. F. Gibbs, Deffenbaugh Funeral Home, Dr. E. S. Shane, Dr. Frank McGinnis, members of the Police department and all who sent flowers. We wish all to know that everything has been greatly appreciated. Frances, Earl and Russell Radcliff, children.

Bum Pitching Staff Not So Bum After All

Alston's 'Hurting' Crew Comes Through With Fourth Straight Win

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pity the poor, porous and pathetic pitching staff of the Brooklyn Dodgers!

Wasn't it only a couple of weeks ago that Dodger Manager Walter Alston was moaning about his "hurting" hill crew, crippled by the loss of sore-armed Billy Loes, Karl Spooner and Sandy Koufax, not to mention the hospitalized Don Bessent?

In defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday night 7-2 behind the four-hit pitching of Roger Craig, the Dodgers got their fourth consecutive complete game by their pitching staff. They lead both leagues with five route-going performances in eight starts.

In 1955, the Dodger staff put together four straight complete games only twice, never more. The victory widened the Dodgers' first place National League lead over idle Milwaukee to a full game. The New York Giants climbed into fourth place by defeating the Phillies 5-3 behind the six-hit pitching of Al Worthington. Cincinnati won its second game in seven starts, beating the Chicago Cubs 7-4. Rain washed out the scheduled contest between the St. Louis Cardinals and Braves in Milwaukee.

Chicago, New York and Cleveland, running one-two-three in the American League, continued their winning ways but Boston was still in the dumps dropping its fifth straight. The surprising Washington Senators evened their season's record at 3-5 with an 8-5 triumph over Baltimore.

The White Sox won their fifth in six starts, taking a 9-7 slugfest from Kansas City to maintain their first place percentage lead over New York. The Yankees whipped the Red Sox 5-2. Bobby Avila's 10th inning home run with a man on base gave the Indians a 4-3 decision over Detroit.

Billy Pierce got a poorly pitched game out of his system and was fortunate to win his third game in as many starts for the White Sox. The little left-hander was tagged for four home runs and 12 hits but managed to outlast four Kansas City pitchers. Harry Simpson whacked him for two home runs and two singles. Hector Lopez and pinch hitter Bill Renna also hit him for four-baggers.

The Yankees got a well-pitched game from Don Larsen, who turned the Red Sox back with six hits. Tom Brewer, the loser, was the victim of three errors which presented the Yankees with two unearned runs. Elston Howard's two-run homer in the eighth iced the victory for New York. The Yankees hold a full-game lead over Chicago on a games behind basis, but the White Sox are in first place percentage-wise, .833 to .800.

It took the combined efforts of Cleveland's relief twins, Don Mossi and Ray Narleski to nail down the victory. Mike Garcia started but the decision went to Mossi, who took over in the ninth. Narleski rescued Mossi in the bottom of the 10th after Earl Torgeson's homer had cut the Indians' lead to one run. He disposed of Ray Boone with two runners on base.

1 Rainbow Trout Reportedly Taken From Deer Creek

An unusual fish catch was reported this week.

Ralph Haines, proprietor of a sporting goods store on W. Main St., said a fisherman came in with a 13-inch rainbow trout. The fisherman claimed he caught it in a pot hole in Deer Creek.

Trout are not common to Pickaway County, so the catch is considered very unusual, Haines remarked. He said he had also heard that some muskies were seen in Deer Creek too.

George Troutman Cap Track Star

A former Circleville High School athlete is lending a lot of weight to Capital University's track team.

George Troutman holds the Ohio Conference shot put mark with an indoor heave of 49'11". He has been of great value to the Lutherans, according to all reports.

2 Huge Generators Planned By Utility

COLUMBUS (AP)—The American Gas and Electric System plans two record-size generating units somewhere in the Ohio Valley, it was reported today.

Philip Sporn, president of AGE and the Ohio Power Co., reported that the two coal-burning, steam-electric generating units, largest ever undertaken in the history of the electric power industry, will cost $55 million.

The company said locations for the two units on the seven-state AGE system have not been selected, but at least one source in Columbus reported it is possible the units will be built at Graham Station, W. Va.

Some OSU Partisans Cry: 'So-And-So Doing It Too'

COLUMBUS (AP)—As an aftermath of the Big Ten slap at Ohio State University football malpractices, it was inevitable that a cry of "well, so-and-so is doing it, too" should be raised.

Hardly had the pronouncement by Big Ten Commissioner Tug Wilson been announced than two Columbus newspapers, the State Journal and the Dispatch, helped point a finger at Ohio State's arch rival, the University of Michigan.

And the accusation was swiftly answered by Michigan's athletic director, Fritz Crisler, who labeled the claims as "utterly fantastic" and ridiculous.

At Michigan State, where the report was supposed to have had backing, the Spartan athletic director, Biggy Munn, declined comment, explaining:

"I think it best to stay outside this thing."

The report, printed by the two newspapers, was allegedly written by the secretary of Ohio State University Alumni Assn., Jack Fullen, to the alumni advisory board, dated last Dec. 14.

In it, Fullen recounted a conversation he said took place in OSU Athletic Director Richard Larkins' hotel suite in Cleveland. Among those present, Fullen wrote, were Ernie Godfrey, assistant football coach at Ohio State, and "a good friend of Dick Larkins who has recently resigned as Big Ten faculty representative from Michigan State."

Among those present, Fullen wrote, were Ernie Godfrey, assistant football coach at Ohio State, and "a good friend of Dick Larkins who has recently resigned as Big Ten faculty representative from Michigan State."

The changes involved benching standout slugger Ted Kluszewski, catcher Smokey Burgess and rookie Frank Robinson.

Into their places against the Chicago Cubs went George Crowe for Klu at first base, Ed Bailey behind the plate for Burgess and Stan Palys in the outfield for Robinson.

The Reds trimmed the Cubs, 7-4. They evened the score at 2-2 in the fourth inning with two runs on Johnny Temple's single with the bases loaded.

Then Bailey put the Reds ahead to stay in the fifth with a three-run homer, his first of the season. It brought in Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

Bailey also scored in the seventh when he sprinted in from second base on a single to left field by pitcher Johnny Klippstein.

Klippstein worked the complete game and yielded seven hits. The Redlegs got 12 hits off four Chicago hurlers.

The law of averages may have helped Cincinnati a little. The win was their first in six games. They are still in the National League cellar with two wins, a tie and five losses.

Tebbetts gave no indication if he plans to retain substantially the same lineup in today's game against the Cubs.

The Redleg manager said that "I'm benching Kluszewski because he is overweight. He can work as hard as he wants to before games which is something he could not do if he were playing."

But the opinion of most ring-siders who watched Cuba's Logart carve out a hit, cling, run, stab and clinch unanimous 10-round decision over Brooklyn's Joe Miceli in a dull fight last night was that Medina would sing a far different tune should his boy climb through the ropes with DeMarco, the former welterweight champion.

Another Tune Seen For Logart

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Ay, ay, ay.

"Senior Jim Norris. Last night, Miceli, we outpointed heem, how 'bout get us Tony De Mar-co?"

That was the tune being sung happily today by Mundito Medina, Puerto Rican song-writer who trains Isaac Logart.

Bucks Chalk Win In Baseball Test

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio State's defending champions yesterday edged Michigan State, 8-7, as Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Northwestern turned in opening day Big Ten baseball victories.

Indiana whipped Michigan, 9-5, in 11 innings; Wisconsin jumped to an early lead to turn back Minnesota, 6-4; Illinois edged Purdue, 2-1, and Northwestern beat Iowa, 2-1.

Wilmington plays here next Tuesday in a game which could decide the South Central Ohio League title.

Tribe Hikes Bat Average, Trips Tigers

DETROIT (AP)—With eight home runs and the addition of some 50 points to the team batting average within this week, the Cleveland Indians are beginning to look like a hitting ball club.

Yesterday's 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers, the fourth in a row for the Tribe, put the Indians one up on Detroit for five games so far this campaign. Today Cleveland's Bob Lemon (1-1) goes against Bud Black (1-0), a rookie right-hander; and tomorrow the series ends with Herb Score opposing Detroit's Billy Hoelt, who has been off with a sore arm.

Bob Avila's home run with Earl Averil on base by a walk provided the runs Cleveland needed for its has led since the first round, but slipped badly yesterday from her record breaking 67 of the opening round. On her second 18 holes she wound up with a 77.

first one-run and extra-inning victory of the year. The score was tied 2-2 when Avila slammed a 380-foot homer into the left field stands off loser Frank Lary in the tenth inning.

The Tigers gave reliever Ray Narleski a scare in their half of the tenth when after two out Earl Torgeson homered and Al Kaline and Harve Kuenn followed with singles. But it all added up to one run shy when Ray Boone flied to Jim Busby for the final out.

The Indians collected nine hits. Avila got a double and single, in addition to his home run; and Vic Wertz also got three hits, including a home run in the sixth that put the Tribe ahead 2-0. The first run was scored in the 5th on Gene Woodling's single and Rocky Colavito's double.

Wertz, off by himself among American league hitters who have been at bat 20 or more times, has a .467 average. After going hitless his first 11 times this year, he has connected on 14 of 19 trips.

Police Ask Help Of Residents For Holding Crime In Check

Tips Suggested In Free Booklet To Protect Kids

City Officers Warn Against Reluctance To Report Incidents

(Second of a series of two.)

In the first article, city police, through a valuable free pamphlet, emphasized the need for speed in being called after a crime has been committed. They point out that the booklet has a number of helpful hints which will help them by having residents know what to do in various circumstances.

Although parents worry constantly about their children, they cannot possibly keep track of them 24 hours a day.

They hope that the police will help them out. "And we will," officers say, "if residents will only help us. There are things they can do — things they can teach their children — which will help both of us."

Here are some more hints from the booklet:

If you are using a baby sitter, and before you leave your home and your children in her charge, be sure of the following:

1. She knows how to get in touch with you;
2. She knows which neighbor to call on in an emergency;
3. She knows how to lock windows and doors and does so;
4. She has company—if any is permitted—of which you approve. Best bet is no company.

IN THE CASE of youngsters, give them a warning about being friendly with strangers. Let the police know immediately if strangers seem to be making advances to children.

If strangers offer rides to youngsters, have them report the license number and other descriptions. Tell them to refuse offers of candy and the like, especially if it means leaving the neighborhood.

(Washington C. H. police arrested a man this week who tried to lure two young girls into a house.)

Encourage children to report any strange happenings, no matter how small. But do not try to do anything about it yourself—report it immediately to the police and let them handle it. If you wait, a suspect may be gone.

Many witnesses and complainants, especially in cases where sex is involved, refuse to appear. To "live and let live" only gives the criminal another chance to strike—and it may be your family which may hold his next victim.

"THERE'S NOTHING like advertising to a criminal that he has a green light," police warn. Too many trustworthy people still leave the key in the ignition and the doors unlocked.

When you go shopping, there is nothing like leaving packages openly displayed in your car to invite a thief to help himself. A locked door, with the window rolled down a bit, just means it will take a fraction of a minute longer to break in—and he will not even have to smash the window open.

"In some of the crimes we have solved in the past year," Safety Director Miller Fissell recounted, "we were able to move in because we were notified quickly. The trail was still fresh and we were able to pick up valuable clues."

"We want to help the people."

School Board Fires Teacher In Dispute

BOWLING GREEN (AP) — The school board of Washington Twp. High School at nearby Tontogany has fired a teacher in a dispute over an auto insurance policy.

The teacher, Lloyd C. Parkson, 31, said he will appeal to common pleas court here.

Parkson was suspended March 21. The board said he refused to follow orders to use the auto it provided for driver education courses. Parkson said his refusal was based on the board's failure to show him a policy indicating the auto was fully covered.

The dismissal came after a 4½-hour public hearing. The vote of the five-member board was unanimous to terminate Parkson's contract. The two-year pact was to have terminated with the end of the school year. Parkson was in his third year at the small school.

Robert Drury of Columbus, attorney for the Ohio Education Assn., represented Parkson at the hearing. He attacked the board's action on grounds no charges against Parkson or notice of dismissal had been handed him.

Prices To Farmer Showing Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prices received by farmers for their products increased 1 per cent during the month ended in mid-April, the Agriculture Department reports.

The mid-April index was 6 per cent below a year ago.

As a result of both higher prices received and higher operating costs, the parity ratio remained unchanged at 82. This figure is the percentage of parity represented by farm prices. Parity is a price said by farm law to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

Flight Arranged

COLUMBUS (AP) — A non-stop flight between Columbus and New York will be inaugurated Sunday by American Airlines. The airline said its four-engine DC6 transport will cover the distance in one hour and 55 minutes.

But we need their cooperation. Just because the crime isn't in your neighborhood this time doesn't mean it can't happen to you."

By the way, the police number is 53.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My husband was killed in the war, in 1943. We had loved each other before the war, and hadn't rushed into marriage. I have adjusted myself to the loss and don't think that part of my life has any bearing on the present problem.

I am 33 and, in the last 10 years, I have worked for five different firms. I am a secretary, but there isn't much in office work I haven't done.

My employers praise me as a good all-around worker, very adaptable and cooperative. Whenever I have left a job, all my associates have seemed sorry. Each time I have resigned, I've been offered other work with the same firm—in another office, with another boss—but I never have felt that would solve anything.

I have been on my present job 14 months; and again am beginning to feel bored and downhearted, and inwardly tearful.

I don't want to keep changing jobs every year or so; but I get so I hate to go to work in the mornings. I will appreciate any help you can give me.

E. C. DEAR E. C.: It seems to me there is something insistently significant and compulsively Pollyannaish about your praise of the various situations and different casts of characters you have known, in your rapid passage from job to job.

You determinedly and consciously think the best of everyone, almost in a spirit of "I'll like them if it kills me." And you knock yourself out, trying to be the ideal employee and co-worker, in the general estimate; never daring to relax as a simple ordinary human being, as faulty as the next fellow—never permitting yourself to be humanly critical or candidly selfish on occasion.

There are two ways of alluding to your problem. One is to say that you are running away from yourself. Another is to say you are looking for something. Either way, it means that the problem is within you, primarily; not in the situation from which you flee.

You are trying to be somebody you think you should be, instead of getting acquainted with the person you are, and being true to self, in your daily experience—insofar as is possible, prudent or feasible. My advice is to start work on discovering and developing your own integrity as a human being, after which contentment with situations will flourish, I think.

In this project you may need some psychological guidance.

M. H. Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write to her in care of this newspaper.

O'Neill Continues On 'Tea' Circuit

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill, Republican candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, today continued his tea and coffee-hour campaign, with informal gatherings scheduled in the homes of socially prominent Columbus-area women.

His 12-hour tour yesterday included seven such gatherings. At those informal meetings, and at others, he urged marshaling of state resources "to get a job done."

O'Neill said various state departments "were not prepared to use the money" allocated to them.

Ohio Charity Groups Slow In Reporting

New State Regulation Requires Fund-Raising Tally From Sponsors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Charity fund-raising groups are taking their time about filing financial reports required by a new Ohio law.

Only a third of the organizations registered with the attorney general have submitted audits of last year's activities. The deadline fell March 31.

Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill said the law enacted by the last Legislature still is subject to some interpretation and may account for some delays.

He said rulings would be issued shortly on exemptions asked by Girl Scout, YMCA, Jewish and other organizations.

O'Neill said the law, effective last Sept. 30, was aimed at groups that spent so much on fund-raising operations that little was left for charity.

Legislators who enacted the law said Ohioans poured thousands of dollars into such drives. They said bona fide organizations had nothing to fear from registration and financial statement rules.

The law requires most charitable groups to report either to the attorney general or the local clerk of courts on fund-raising drives in more than one county. Drives limited to one county require reports in that county. Charitable organizations are defined as "benevolent, philanthropic, patriotic, educational or eleemosynary."

Group registrations are good so long as the information remains complete. But financial reports and registrations by professional fund-raisers and solicitors are required annually.

Religious organizations are exempt from registration. So are educational institutions conducting drives among their own alumni or students. Groups raising money for relief of a specific person without deductions or with expenses of less than $500 a year also are exempt.

Records in the attorney general's office include some 50 registrations filed under the new law. About 15 of those have filed the financial reports required last March, attaches said. A number of those are small groups reporting contributions totaling only a few thousand dollars.

One of the largest was the Greater Cincinnati Hospital Funds, Inc. The report from November 1954, through last December listed pledges for $3,248,872. The total under expenses was $156,485.

Disabled American Veterans, Cincinnati, included in its report figures on miniature auto license tag key rings sent to Ohio motorists in a fund-raising campaign.

DILLE & McGUIRE ROTARY POWER MOWERS

SUPREME 18-inch KING 21-inch

Rotary Mowers will cut anything from a fine lawn to heavy growth several feet high. This type has become so popular that scores of new manufacturers are making them—many of whom have never made Lawn Mowers before. The manufacturer of this Mower has made Lawn Mowers and nothing but Lawn Mowers for more than 80 years. We'll stake our reputation on it and recommend it as the very best you can buy. Come in and see it. Moderately priced, too. Briggs & Stratton 4-cycle Engine, of course.

Buy it with confidence—own it with pride.
